

WALT use the model text, and our own research and idea to write a persuasive letter to Mrs Sanderson.

	Paragraph structure and questions to help plan your paragraphs.	My plan (notes and ideas/ research to help you write your letter tomorrow)	Some useful phrases to help link your reasons.
Paragraph 1 Introduction	Who are you? What is the main reason for writing - raise the issue.		As a result..... In addition..... Furthermore..... This causes..... Consequently..... Therefore..... Firstly..... Secondly..... Finally..... Moreover..... Another reason..... An intelligent person like yourself..... It goes without saying..... Surely.....
Paragraph 2 Reason 1	Persuasive point one Paragraph starting with Firstly ... Give your first reason including a fact and include others who share your view. Student council is a good example or parents.		In fact..... The real truth is..... Of course..... Naturally..... However..... In conclusion I feel..... My personal opinion is that..... I strongly believe
Paragraph 3 Reason 2	Another persuasive reason starting with Secondly ... Remember to give believable reasons to try to persuade Mrs Sanderson to agree with you.
paragraph 4 reason 3	Give your final reason. The paragraph should start with Finally ...
Closing paragraph	In this paragraph, you should repeat the outcome you would like from this. Mention that you expect a response and sign off with yours sincerely

WILF - 1st person pronouns ☐ emotive language ☐ Rhetorical question ☐ facts ☐ use of an authority figure ☐

Paragraphs ☐ alliteration ☐ description ☐ Fronted adverbials ☐ Repetition