WALT use the model text and the research to box up and plan the biography of our famous person.

	Original- Attenborough	Name of person -	Interesting phrases Key vocabulary Stolen parts to the story Useful sentence structures or punctuation
Introduction	Who, what are/were they famous for,		• Have you ever dreamt of • As the world's most famous • have inspired generations
Born, where, siblings, parents, early life	• Where were they born and when? • Who were their parents • Did they have any siblings? • What did they like doing in their early life	.	• In 1926, David Frederick Attenborough was born into a well-off family • David became fascinated by natural history in his early childhood. In fact, by the age of seven, he had already created his very own "museum" of bird eggs, old stamps and ancient fossils.
University/early achievements Family/marriage	• Did they go to university/college if so where and what did they study? • What did they do after school? • What was their preferred job/		• After school, David studied • So on finishing his studies, • In 1950, Attenborough married • The couple had children named,
Paragraphs of future achievements	• What are some of the major achievements of this person to make them so interesting to write a biography about – This should be written in chronological order and could have sub-titles		• Not only does David undertake extensive travel • David joined the BBC in 1952 • he had always wanted to present wildlife documentaries • After several years, • …started to make a name for himself
Conclusion	• What have they taught us? or • What will they always be remembered for • Finish with a Quote		At the age of 88, he is still producing Attenborough will always be remembered for the best natural and history films of all time. "I just wish the world was twice as big and half of it was still unexplored."

WILF - Title ☐   Past tense ☐   Third person ☐   Catchy introduction ☐   Conclusion ☐

Paragraphs ☐ Chronological order ☐ adverbials of time ☐ Quote ☐ passive voice ☐